The Principal is determined that the instruction shall be most thorough. To this end all subjects are treated as practically as possible, and illustrated in such a manner as to assist the thinking and reasoning powers, and to enable the pupil to discover for himself the truth sought after and the principles on which it depends. It is the aim of the Principal, in all his teaching, to inculcate the habit of careful and patient investigation, and thus to lay a sure foundation for sound and accuigent inquirer a vast amount of the most attractive material .ing matter for it for a great number of years; and no one this side the Atlantic is better fitted for the task than he. JOHN P. WARE,

Fourth " JOHN P. WARE, JOSEPH B. WEEDEN. The following resolutions were then read by Dr. BACON deceived with repeated and enthusiastic cheers: Resolved, That the Whigs of this Ward are now, as the whave been, firm and unchangeable in their high devotion the one great cause—the same at all times and in all mes—the cause of good government in the city, in the mes and in the Nation—the cause of economy, retrenchment inteform—the cause of good order and of law. Resolved, That as true Whigs, we cannot permit ourselves ming this great year of momentous contest, to be distracted im the performance of our duty to the whole cause, by any traneous questions or temporary issues—that we cannot te with any portion of the enemies of the peace and pros sity of the country—that we cannot, under any circumstants, vote for any Loco-Foco who leaves his own party only a day that he may cheat us of our votes without adopt g day that he may creat us of our votes without adopting one principles.

Resolved, That, under the peculiar circumstances of the uprosceing Charter Election, we especially congratulate suslyes on the character of the nominations now presented to us by our Nominating Committee, which are commended a our suffrages not only by the devotion of our Candidates to the cause, but by their eminent personal qualificabetrae Whig cause, but by their eminent personal qualifica about whereby our ticket commands respect even frem politi-cal opponents—and that we proudly challenge for them a comparison with the nominees of any party in any Ward of he City.

Resolved, That in CLARKSON CROLIUS We recognize a true Resolved, That in CLARKSON CROLIUS We recognize a true bemocratic Whig, the worthy son of an honored lather whose same is associated with the history of the genuine old Demotracy of New-York—that by happy experience we have known in value as an Alderman, universally acknowledged even by Loco-Focos to be the most faithful, courageous and useful maistrate ever elected in the Sixth Ward—that as one born as his West and of a femily who have dwalf on the same withis Ward, and of a family who have dwelt on the same spot for one hundred and fifty years, he is "Native American" cough for all practical purposes, though totally opposed, as to the prescription of any class of citizens on account de birth or religion.

Kesolved, That we welcome the nomination of Elijah wan, a situation as Nurse and Seamstress, or Chamber-mand and Laundress. Please inquire at No. 57 Crosby-street. The most satisfactory city reference can be given for capabili-T. Lewis as Assistant Alderman, knowing him of oid as a bue-heated and zealous fellow-worker with us, who has stood by us in darker times than this, and whom we have been soud to endorse by our suffrages—one who during a long re-moud to endorse by our suffrages—one who during a long residence in this Ward has acquired among us a high and honor, the character by his able and efficient performance of all the faties of a patriot, not only as a voter but as an active fireman and a popular citizen-soldier and officer—in all, well worthy of higher honors than we can give.

Resolved, That Daniel A. Webster and Samuel Roome, now nominated for Assessors, and Martin T. Watres and Edward Hussed as Constables, are well entitled to the suffrages of all the true Whogs and all the good citizens of this Ward, to their private worth and intelligence, and for their known whility to all public duties, as devoted Whogs and active labores in the good citizens and for their capability for here responsible offices and for higher stations.

Resolved, That we heartily accept and approve the nomina-

Arse responsible offices and for higher stations.

Resolved. That we heartly accept and approve the nomination of Morris Franklin as the Whig candidate for Mayor if this City,—having long known his activity in various caractites—as a freman, as an able and useful Member of our city Conocils, and of both branches of our State Legislature, is all which he has been triumphantly approved by the peode, as is honorably demonstrated by the fact that he has often even elected, even when there have been large Loco Foco maen elected, even when there have been large Loco Foco ma butteragainst others on our tickets,—that we know he will, if elected, be one of the most energetic and serviceable Chief Magistrates ever known in this City.—and that his public tharacter warrants us in proclaiming him above all comparison with both his present competitors for the Mayoralty.

Resolved, That we will unitedly and zealously labor from his moment to the closelofthe election to secure a well-deserving moments.

W. Feeks) is situated in an elevated and pleasant part of the City, and is accessible by stages from the remotest sections of the town.

The Principal, having relinquished his connexion with the Irving Institute at Tarrytown, with a view of conducting a school in the metropolis, has selected this location as one of the most desirable to be found. Being a graduate of Columbia College, and having been for some years a teacher in this city, and during five years one of the Principals of the Irving Institute, he refers with entire confidence to his numerous former patrons, most of whom reside in this city.

The school of Mr. Feeks, which is continued under the title of "The New-York Grammar School," is well and favorably known; as that gentleman succeeded to Mr. Shepherd Johnson, and has been for the last twelve years a successful teacher. to suggest subjects, which, by their singularity, are new to inquiry, and which may lead to new trains of ideas. In accustoming ourselves to discoveries of this nature, every research seems to yield the agreeable feeling of invention—it is a pleasure peculiar to itself—something which we ourselves have found out—and which, whenever it imparts novelty at interest to another, communicates to him the delight of the first discoverer."—Extract from the Preface to the Second Series. "Nor do I presume to be any thing more than the historian of genrus, whose humble office is only to tell the virtues and of gentus; whose numble office is only to ten the virtues and the infirmities of his heroes. It is the fashion of the present day to raise up dazzling theories of genius; to reason a priori; to promulgate abstract paradoxes; to treat with levity the man of genius, because he is only a man of genius.
